SIGHTSEEING OBJECTS

KOKNESE

Koknese medieval castle ruins

The Koknese medieval castle ruins hold testimonies from ancient Hanseatic city. Today Koknese medieval castle ruins host concerts and performances, as well as activities like minting coins, wedding ceremonies according to medieval or ancient Latvian traditions. The historical exposition in castle ruins pavilion gives insight about the previous scenery of the place. In the ruins, you can visit the torture chamber, see the former place of the well, and the outcrop of the ancient cobbles. Entrance fee.

Koknese park

The Koknese park was created in 1900, by the River Perse estuary in Daugava. The Koknese park features both local and foreign trees, as well as a wide variety of rare wild flowers. The park is home to the Koknese medieval castle ruins, a fountain 'Faun's head', stone sculpture 'Perse girl'. There are several delightful wooden sculptures in the park, as well as the 11-metre wooden sculpture named 'For eternity', and a tea house-gazebo. History buffs will appreciate the Celtic crosses and cast-iron cannons from Swedish times, as well as burial grounds of the people who died during WWII.
